SENATOR-ELECT PAYNE

Said to be John Kelly's Favorite Candidate for President.

New York a Failure as a President Furnishing State.

Democratic Convention Plans--The Prohibitionists--Tennessee Democracy--Harrietson Meeting--Logan's Movements.

New York, June 21.—Mr. Kelly is evidently of the opinion that the Cleveland boys at Saratoga is simply a mask covering for a major-elect Payne or Governor Hooley of Ohio. He gives no ground for such a belief in interview with him, but it is known that a prominent member of the County Democracy sent a dispatch to Senator Payne yesterday, informing him that New York would be sold for him in the National Convention.

STUPID FACT.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Upon the plan that New York is important in the campaign the Democrats have, for the past twenty years, selected their candidate for President from that State, and as history repeats itself, it is to be expected that they will do so again.

and Senator Hale to-day visited the Soldiers' Home at Togus. As the party made their appearance General Stephenson, Governor of the Home, and the soldiers, to the number of 900, drew up in line, and a salute was fired. General Logan was presented to them and made one of his best speeches. As he finished he was given the round of cheering, and the soldiers also spoke. The party returned to Augusta and left for Washington this afternoon.

PORTLAND, Me., June 21.—General Logan, accompanied by Senator Hale, arrived here yesterday by a gathering of citizens, including a brother of Senator Hale. General Logan said he had enjoyed his visit to Maine very much, but could not say whether he would visit the State again during his vacation. He said: "I received a dispatch from Major O'Rourke saying she is ill and asking when I can be back. I shall make as quick time as possible." Referring to the visit to the soldiers at Togus, he said: "I didn't mention politics in my address to them. I simply spoke to my old comrades at war times."

Nominating Committee.

BOSTON, June 21.—The nominating committee of the committee of one from each state and territory appointed by the Republican National Convention to formally notify Blaine of his nomination, answered to the roll this morning at the Parker House.

John H. Henderon, of Missouri, president.

Edmund B. Brown, of Chicago, acted as Secretary.

That's Nice.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—General Benjamin F. Butler had an interview with the President to-day.

Ker on the Stand.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Mr. Ker, of Government counsel in the Star Route case, was before the Springfield Committee to-day, and in his statement in his defense of himself, was influenced by political motives, but he would not say so directly. A greater part of the session was occupied by Ker in reviewing the state's case, and in giving the defense of his client, Ker, General Franklin, and others to submit certain exhibits bearing upon his case. The Committee ordered these affidavits to be produced for their information.

Mr. Ker thought it very important for the Committee to settle definitely the question of veracity now pending between Blais and the Hutchinson Grand Jury, respecting affidavits made to prove Fric's testimony.

He also gave his opinion that Blais, instead of himself, has been guilty of falsehood.

The witness proceeded to recapitulate certain passages of testimony, but nothing exciting transpired.

Blais then resumed the stand. He made further corrections and explanations.

RAGING RIO GRANDE.

Water Said to be Higher Than for a Quarter of a Century.

El PASO, Tex., June 21.—The Rio Grande River has shown more water here and above than at any time in a quarter of a century. The Mexican Central Railroad bridge has been washed away, and the valleys below to Camp Rice and Old Fort Quitman have the appearance of a vast inland sea. The water has covered the general town and the river, on which are the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad depot buildings, have all been submerged. It is understood that the American town of Presidio, Texas, near Leon, has been nearly destroyed.

WALL STREET FEVERISH.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Monday, 3 per cent. Exchange dull and lower by 45¢ to 48¢. Governments dull. Currency, 12 1/2 bid; four coupons, 13 1/2 bid; four and a half, 111 bid.

The stock market was dead and feverish, and so continued up to mid-day, when there was a fractional rally. Then in the morning the bears frequently raised Vanderbilt's, Western Union, and other leading stocks. Shortly before noon the decline was general, and at 1:30 P. M. in this there was a fractional rally. For this there was a frantic race for paper, buying to cover, but at the time of writing the whole list is weak again.

A FATED COLLISION.

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—A collision occurred yesterday evening at Blue Anchor Station on the Philadelphia & Atlantic Railroad between the paymaster's train and a horse train.

Both engines were shattered. The paymaster and his assistant, John Scrope, brakeman, and Wm. T. Tull, fireman, were seriously injured.

The accident was caused by theerry train being an hour ahead of time.

The injury was brought to this city this morning.

The train dispatcher's statement is not yet forthcoming.

TWO MEN WERE KILLED AND TWO ESCAPED.

DENVER, Colo., June 21.—A desperate encounter between officers and thieves took place Wednesday on the south of the Colorado River, near Keenesburg. The two who were members of the Rocky Mountain Detective Association were in pursuit of the thieves, who carried off a number of cattle. When the thieves found they could not escape they struck fight. Two of them were killed and two escaped.

THE MINER'S TRIAL.

PIRATESBURG, June 21.—At an adjourned hearing in the conspiracy case of Cashier Reiter and Thomas Watson, of the Penn Bank, this morning, the testimony of several witnesses was heard, after which all agreed to go to trial at the September term of court. Bail in $30,000 for each was required and given.

BLAINE CAMPAIGN SONG.
Respectfully Committed to the Whooers Up.
Come, all ye gallant whoopers up,
And swell the trials of our land,
Sing out the truth, away the boys
Beneath the Jingo reign;
For when the Jingo comes, the land
With Jiminy Jingo Blaine.
We buried deep the Arthur boom,
Crushed Sherman in the fray,
And when the rebels made their lye
Was melted all away.
And we care not a single jot
What may or may not say.
For when our countrymen set, you see,
To lead the party on,
And they who creep, or fain would sleep,
When our campaign for Jiminy Blaine;
It's full of fire and fun.
We mean to whoop it up, you bet,
And make them spread their eyes;
The world is at our feet,
Forgettings sorts and sights;
And navy yards shall be our wards,
And battleships our ports.
The world is at our feet freely fall
Among us like the rain,
And we will raise in various ways
Our voices in the strain
For that the style of rank and file

SUICIDE BY DROWNING.

This morning, about half-past nine o'clock, Mrs. Bradford, who lives in the lower part of the city, and is about sixty years of age, committed suicide by drowning herself in the river at Shultz's grade. Two small boys, Charles Hasson and Henry George, who witnessed the act, say that she ran by them exclaiming "good bye everybody," and plunging into the water was drowned before they could aid her. They recovered the body but life was extinct. Mrs. Bradford was the mother of John and William Bradford, employees at the Maysville Cotton Mills. No reason is known for the act.

A SUGGESTION.
Walsh New Stew.

"It's no use, Mary," he said, as he got off the train at a station in New Jersey, and found his wife waiting to drive him home to the farm.

"What happened?"

"Why, down in York the bulls are preying on the women and children, and when a woman drops."

"Well, isn't that what we hope for?"

"Yes, but the bears say that England won't buy a bushel of us that fall."

"Oh, well, I am sure, I shouldn't worry over it, but I am afraid we'll have to move."

"If wheat is big and prices low, we'll make up for it in the cider. You know we can water that almost half, and sell all we can make."

THE KIND OF ANSWER HE GAVE.
Atlanta Constitution.

"What was all that scuffling about, down stairs?" asked Mrs. Hilburt, as her lord and master strode into the room.

"Nothing except that monkey-faced devil, John, and his wife, Mrs. Ann."

"What did he say?"

"Oh, he began by saying he was speaking from the bottom of his heart, an' so on."

"An' what did answer did you give?"

"I gave 'em spannolis, too," answered Hilburt, gently tapping his little angelic number twelve shoe, "and gave him an answer from the bottom of my sole."

MR. BAYARD'S RECORD.

BOSTON POST.

"I can put my finger right on a secession speech made by Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware, and say it was a speech which fears that statesman, a friend of ours, a day or two ago. The Post is offering large premiums now for every secession speech that Mr. Bayard may produce such a one. Mr. Bayard's speech since he entered the Senate to succeed his honored father, fifteen years ago, is a part of the most creditable history of the country during that time. It needs neither defense nor apology, as far as I am concerned. The speech is a good one. The speech that can be done for it is simple presentation. It will stand alone and defy every assault. So will his record back of that, but it has not been to so great an extent part of property. It is that to which we are willing to give a price.
